

Positive Education Planning

Supporting children with a disability in Victorian government primary schools

A successful year at school requires planning and input from parents and a positive approach towards including children with a disability by everyone involved in your child's education. Our Positive Education Planning booklet includes parent stories and information on the following topics:

- Parents and schools: Developing positive partnerships
- The Student Support Group
- Understanding your child as a learner
- Individual Learning Plans
- Setting goals
- Supports for students with a disability
- Measuring your child's progress
- Raising a concern
- Advocating for your child

Copies of the Positive Education Planning booklet are available FREE to families. Service providers and professionals can also order multiple copies free of charge to give to families.

"Developing a positive partnership with your child's school is the foundation of a successful school experience for your child and family. The best outcomes are possible when parents and schools work together."
